

CHANGE YOUR MIND, CHANGE YOUR LIFE!

Train your brain to get the most out of college

An Unforgettable Presentation By Mark Zust, The Perceptionist

A young adult's mind is remarkably adaptable, which is the key to being creative, making good life decisions, and planning for an amazing future!

Mark Zust has made a career out of shaping young minds and inspiring students to become more than they thought was possible. In this interactive presentation students will use their minds in new ways and even make predictions that really come true! You'll hear the audience laugh and gasp as their perception of what's possible is blown wide open!

Mark Zust is truly one of a kind.

Neither a psychic nor a conventional magician, Mark is The Perceptionist. He creates a high energy experience for students that entertains as it educates. He has worked with students at major Universities, Community Colleges and High Schools. Mark is also the author of Smarten Up For College, the best-selling companion book.

In addition, companies as diverse as ClearChannel Communications, The Cleveland Clinic and Studio Art Centers International have enjoyed Mark's remarkable demonstrations and inspiring messages of how we can tap more of our minds to reach our potential and create a powerful future. Mark's message captivates and educates.

Mark's background as a college professor, author, entrepreneur and performer ensures that his presentations are thought-provoking, 100% clean and lots of fun! He is an accomplished speaker and teacher, having performed his special brand of "mind magic" for more than 35 years.

Students will learn:

- Three secrets to succeeding in school and beyond.
- How to read faster and enjoy it!
- The keys to supercharging your creativity & solving problems.
- Five ways to plan ahead, get along with others and feel great about your future.
- How to develop a mindset that creates happiness and a powerful outlook on life.

Mark's training sessions on mind development and creative problem solving are favored by teachers, executives, managers and staff nationwide. Mark was voted Outstanding Teacher of the Year in the College of Arts and Sciences at Bowling Green State University and has received more than 50 national and international awards of excellence for his creative design solutions for a wide range of clients including Smucker's, White/GMC, the Girls Scouts of America and many others.
